¶ The Ordynauce of the Realme.

The ordynauce of the realme of England the kynges myght and measure to be made after the Statute: that is for to saye, if at an Englyshe peny called a rounde peny a shillinge without elyphpenny, shall weye. xxxii. cozers of Wheate, in the myddes of the yere. And. xx. d. maketh an ounce, and. xii. ounces maketh a pounde, that is to saye. xx. s. Nextlynge. And. viii.
li. of wheate maketh a galien of wyne measure. And. viii. gal-long maketh a bushell, that is the eyght parte of a quarter.
¶ Also ye shall vnderstand that, ii. oz. iii. loaves be made to be sol-de for a peny: a that no loaves be made to be sold of, iii. farthyn-ges nor of, v. farthinges. Nor no bread be surred nor made of bran, the which is worse inwardly in bakynge than outward.

¶ Here foloweth the Statute vpon the Mase of breade firste in Laten, and after in Englyshe.

Here ye shall vnderstande that the Baker (as it hath ben. proued by the baker of our souerayne Lozde the Kyng) may gaine on euery quarter of wheate .iiii. d. & his bran .x. ii. lo-ues for furnage. for .iiii. seruantes .i. d. ob. ii. boves .q. for salt co-for colfo. ob. for candle .q. for wood .iii. d. for bulcet ob. allowed of. When the quarter of wheate is solde for .iiii. s. or .iii. s. .iiii. d.
And Barly for .xx. d. or .ii. s. And Otes for .xviii. d. & an brewers in Citties may sell .ii. Gallons of good ale for .i. d. and in the boroghes .iii. gallons for .i. d. And without they ought to sell iii. for a peny, and so they maye well.

And to do you knowledg that this assyse cometh thorough all England, by the comendament of our soueraign lord the kyng. And this is the assyse of Bread and Ale, according as it is conteyned in wytyng of the Walsall of our soueraign lozde the kyng, after the pryce of the best wheate, the seconde, third, fourth, and as well the wastell as other bread of what sort so euer they be, shall wey after pryce of meane wheate.

And this assyse of breade ought not to be chaunged, but than the quarter of wheate ryseth or fallett .vi. d. in the pryce. And euery Baker ought to haue his proper marke on euery sozte of his or theire breade.

And that no brewer ryse nor sal a farthig in the gallons, but when the quarter of malte ryseth or fallett .xii. d. in the pryce.

And they that breake the assyse of bread & ale, shalbe com-red for the first, the second, and the third time, and the fourth tyme the Baker shall haue the iudgement of the pylloies; and the Bayly of the Towne.

And if there be any that by false meanes blyeth to sell meale, for the first tyme he shalbe greuously punished, the second tyme he shal lose his meale; the .iii. tyme he shal haue the iudgement of the pylloies; the .iiii. tyme he shal forswere the towne. &c.
And lykewyse the Bakers that offende.

Also bouchers that sel mesel wythe, or moren flesch, for the fyrst tyme, they shalbe greuouly amerced; for the seconde tyme so offending, they shall haue the iudgement of the pillory, for the thyrde tyme, they shall be committed to prison, & transmied. And the fourth tyme they shall forsweere the towne. And thus ought other transgressours to be punished, as Cookes foretellers, and regatours of the market: whan the Cookes seth, rost, bake, or any other wyse dysse, for the, or the, or holsoine for mans body.

The Assyse of Wood and Cole.

Here of late yeres, not only the kynges hegh-nesse, but also all hye teyring subiectes haue bene muche doctored in this, that they haue boughte by the grete corrupcion & thynnes of the sellers of the same, as well by vntrue meares of Coles, bytell and bytell continually mynished as also in the vntrue length and quantyte of fagot, Calwood, and billet, to the great dyscunte and losse, as well of our Soueraigne lord, as also of all his saythfull and true subiectes. For reforation herof, be it enacted by the kyng our soueraigne lord the lordes spirituall and temporal, and by the commons in this present Parliament asssembled, and by the auctorite of the same, that no person from the tyme of the purgacion of our blessed Lady that halbe in the yere of our Lord a thousande four-

Of

Of bytaille and bytallours

De was defended by þe Statute of york an no. xii. Ed. ii. That no mynyſter in Cytie, oz Borough, whiche by reason of his office, ought to ſe the Aſſyſe of Wyne and bytaille kept, ſhuld beynge in office, marchaunte Wy nes & bytalles in groſſe oz at retale on pay ne to loſſe it, the ſame. But our moſt graces ous ſouerayne lord kynge Henry the. vii. the. iii. yere of his moſt noble regne in his Parlyamente holden at Weſtmy nſter. the. liiii. daye of februarye both repelled the ſame Statut and enacted by auctorite of the ſame Parlyamente, for many bygge conſyderacions, that when any bytallier is choſen to beare office in any Cytie, towne oz borough corporat, w. l. ſch for the tyme beynge in office, ſhulde haue the aſſyſing and reg rection of bytaille, that than ii. dyſcret and honeſt men of the ſame cytie, towne, oz borough corporat, next her of both b. l. g a bytallier ſhal be choſen by the comynaltie, lyke wyſe as the ſayd officer is, which two oz one, the other beynge abſent to the ſayd officer, ſhall ſet the ſyle and priſes of bytalles for the tyme the ſayd bytallier ſhall abide in this ſayd office and after the priſes and aſſyſes ſo ſet, it is leſull for the ſayde officers to inarchaunt and ſell wyne, and other bytalles in groſſe oz at retale, without forſaytyng.

It was enacted the. xxiii. yere of. E. iii. Cap. vi. þe bouchers ſylweymongers, Inholders, brewers, bakerys, pulters, and al o ther ſellers of what ſoever bytalliez, ſhuld ſell for a reaſonable price, reſpecte had to ſette and in recarpage eſte ſame it ſyl les, and he that doth otherwiſe and is conuict therof ſhall pay the double that he receiued to the party deſmaged, oz in his de faute, to whom that well ſe in thys behaſſe.

And the Mayor, and balliſſes of cities, townes, boroughes portes, protes & other places, haue power to enquire of the pemysses and to leuie the foresaid penaltie to therr use, at whose suit & transgressours were condicte. And in case the Justices a day lysses by condict before the kynges Justices as negligent in re-curing of the pemysses, they shalbe compelled by haine Ju-dices to pay thysse the worth of the thing solde to him that is damaged, or els in his defaute to another that sueth, and yet farther they shalbe punished at the kynges pleasure.

¶ It was enacted, anno. xxi. E. iii. ca. c. That whoe that bryngeth bytapples to London, either by land or water, maye freely sell the same to whom he will, without bybourbaunce of spishmonger, boucher, peltier or other. And that the mayre & Aldermen shulde redresse the defaultes of spishmongers, bou-chers, and pulters, likewise as of them that sell palled wine or ale. Notwithstandyng charter of libertie, customes or other privileges, made or vied to h contrary, on payre of. M. marke for the first defaulte, for the second. ii. M. marke, & for the thir-de defaute to lose therr franchise.

¶ It was enacted, anno. vi. R. ii. ca. ix. That bytappers in no Cytie, nor towne, throughe England shuld occupie the office of a Judge, excepte for lacke of other sufficient. & than whyle he is in that office of a Judge, he nor none of his shal sell no bytapples on payre of forfapture.

¶ And the. vii. yere of the said king. R. ca. xi. the statutes mad the. v. and. vi. yere of his rigne touching spishmongers, byn-teners, and other bytappers of London are re- yoled.

¶ Also it was enacted, anno. xiii. R. ii. ca. viii. that Justices of peace in every Shyre at the celsyng holden betwene Easter,
